Withdrawals from For-Credit Courses:

Students who withdraw from a course will not earn credit for the course or receive a grade. Refund and withdrawal policies listed above still apply.

For Lakeside students, the discretionary Summer School course withdrawal period is the first two weeks of class. If students withdraw from the course within the first two weeks, the course will not appear on the student's transcript. If a Lakeside student withdraws from the course after the first two weeks of class, the notation on the student's transcript will be W/P (withdraw while passing) or W/F (withdraw while failing). The notation is determined by the Summer School Director in consultation with the relevant teacher. Refund and withdrawal policies listed above still apply.

All withdrawals must be requested in writing to the Summer School Programs office.

Requests may be emailed to SummerSchool@lakesideschool.org.

Force Majeure Clause

Lakeside Summer School Programs will not be responsible or legally liable for any tuition refund or for any loss, costs or damages for any delay or failure of its performance under this agreement, including any changes in programming, cancellation or other alteration, resulting from an act of God or other condition beyond its control (force majeure). Conditions resulting in a force majeure include but are not limited to fire or other natural disaster, war, violence or terrorism, infectious disease epidemic, or other disruptive major event. In the event of a force majeure, Lakeside Summer School Programs will suspend or alter its performance if and until, in its sole discretion, it is able to appropriately resume performance.
